

The arrows that we have marked in red are the sell signals and those in green are the buy signals. We see that Aroon oscillator performs well in trending markets.

We will have to combine them with other indicators such that we can avoid the sideways market.

Every time it crosses the zero line, it produces a trade signal that we can act upon.