

Chapter 2 - Running Screens on Screener

Step 1: Explore the “screens” feature located in the header section, providing access to predefined financial conditions known as screens, serving as filters to identify companies meeting specific criteria for generating investment ideas.

The “screens” tab provides access to predefined financial conditions, known as screens. These screens serve as filters, helping us identify companies that meet certain financial criteria, thereby facilitating the generation of new investment ideas and yielding valuable results.

