3 Still with your legs completely together, renew your form. Lift the groin muscles toward the head, and pull the abs up and into your spine. Clasp your hands behind your head.

4 Inhale and lift up and out of the rib cage, over an imaginary fence under one armpit. Tilt one elbow down toward the floor, the other up toward the ceiling. Exhale and take your shoulders back to center. Feel a "V" of strength from the small of the lower back to the points of the elbows. Repeat on the other side, and then repeat one more set.
