

▼ DOUBLE-BARRELED PIN-FIRE PISTOL

Date 1860

Origin Belgium

Barrel 7½in (19cm)

Caliber .44in pin-fire

The modest quality of this inexpensive pistol is typical of the many tens of thousands of cheap weapons produced in Belgium, Germany, and elsewhere throughout the 19th century. The pistol breaks open like a shotgun for loading and has folding triggers that hinge downward when the hammers are cocked.

▼ REMINGTON RIM-FIRE DOUBLE-BARRELED DERRINGER

Date 1865

Origin US

Barrel 3in (7.6cm)

Caliber .41in rim-fire

Henry Deringer was a Philadelphia gunmaker who specialized in pocket pistols; his name was ascribed—with the mysterious addition of a second “r”—to a genre of such weapons. The best-known of them was the rim-fire Remington Double Derringer, a top-hinged, tip-up, over-and-under design that was to remain in production until 1935.

► WEBLEY MARK 1 REVOLVER

Date 1870

Origin UK

Barrel 4in (10.16cm)

Caliber .455in

This was one of Webley and Scott's standard models of revolver and saw widespread commercial sale, as well as adoption by some police forces. It was produced in a number of different calibers and used center-fire cartridges.
