

CIVIL WAR ARTILLERY

A great variety of artillery—smoothbore and rifled—saw service during the American Civil War (1861–65). Here, Union officers gather around a 3-inch Ordnance Rifle, the most widely used type of rifled artillery of the conflict.

